

Dog-Friendly Accommodation

In need of somewhere to rest your head for the night and the paws of your companion? Look no further than:

- Smiths Court Hotel, Margate

Hotel in Cliftonville, very close to the coast and access to the promenade is less than 2 minutes' walk away.

- The Walpole Bay Hotel, Margate

At the end of Cliftonville, good location for the Viking Coastal Trail.

- Seagulls Holiday Home, Margate

Situated in a quiet road facing a pleasant green with tennis courts and a bowling club. Small dogs only.

- Bay Tree Hotel, Broadstairs

Small hotel looking over beautiful Stone Bay. Great spot for exploring the town and the beaches.

- Botany Bay Hotel, Broadstairs

More or less right on the beach which is dog-friendly from September to March. Large green area outside the hotel. 5 dog-friendly rooms.

- The Royal Albion Hotel, Broadstairs

An elegant retreat in this seaside town, located directly opposite Viking Bay. 3 dog-friendly rooms.

- The Hanson, Broadstairs

Right in the heart of Broadstairs, a good base for exploring all seven beaches the town has to offer.

- Albion House, Ramsgate

Luxurious seaside hotel looking out to sea with stunning views of the Royal Harbour.

- Holiday Inn Express, Ramsgate

A friendly hotel in a listed art deco hotel, 5 miles from the town of Ramsgate.

- Royal Harbour Hotel, Ramsgate

The clue is in the name! Cosy small hotel overlooking the Royal Harbour.

- The Falstaff, Ramsgate

Easy Access to the Royal Harbour for great walks. Close to wide promenade and Government Acre green space. 1 dog-friendly room.

- Langmead Guest House, Ramsgate

Small, traditional bed & breakfast. Walking distance to the seafront and harbour. Small dogs only.

- Nethercourt Touring Park, Ramsgate

Close to the popular Westcliff area of Ramsgate with its large promenade and artificial beach which is dog-friendly year-round.

- Raleigh Cottage, Birchington

Close to Minnis Bay (dog-friendly September to March) and Epple Bay, which is dog-friendly all year round.

Please check directly with accommodation provider before you book.

